Itinerary:

Day 1

On day one, a dedicated Oz Snow Adventures tour guide will meet and greet you at Narita Airport and transfer you directly to Hakuba. On your way to Hakuba, your tour guide will issue you with your room numbers and any pre-paid lift tickets. This is also a good opportunity to purchase any discounted ski equipment. Please note that this transfer takes approx 4hrs and ski equipment is limited.

Day 2-14

The next thirteen days have been left up to you to explore Hakuba at your leisure. Take advantage of the excellent snow season Japan is renowned for and make the most of your multi-mountain lift pass. Breakfast will be provided by your hotel each day and your tour guide will take you out for a group dinner at one of Hakuba's local restaurants.

You will have the opportunity of organising optional activities provided by the staff at Wind Jacket Lodge. Take advantage of the local sites and activities that Hakuba and its surrounding areas have to offer. After a hard day of skiing, why not relax at one of Japan's traditional bath houses before you hit the slopes again for a spot of night skiing. Don't forget to check out Wind Jacket's activities board located at reception, to find out what day we will be going to visit the Snow Monkeys and Zenkoji Temple along with the Nagano Round 1 Amusement Stadium.

Day 15

On day fifteen, you will be transferred to either to your accommodation in Tokyo, the Tokyo Prince Hotel Tokyo or to Narita Airport for your return flight home. On your way back to Tokyo we will be stopping at Matsumoto where you have entry into Matsumoto Castle. It is a good idea to use this stop to grab a bite to eat before reboarding the bus to Tokyo.
